CI Dialogues 2013

"NEW MEDIA: FUTURE OF ART, ART OF THE FUTURE"

CI Dialogues, the fair's talk programme will this year be themed around new technologies, new media and art tying into the first year of Plug In.

The programme will examine questions including how and in which ways do new technologies influence the production of art. Annette Doms, Fair Director of Unpainted, Isabelle & Jean-Conrad Lemaître, Committee Members of Loop Art Fair are amongst the speakers who will participate.

Guest Country "New Horizons": Russian Federation!

New Horizons, a section of Contemporary Istanbul which offers an annual focus of contemporary art from a selected geographic region will this year put a spotlight on Russia. The New Horizons section explores contemporary artistic expression of surrounding countries of the region. Having previously featured contemporary art from Syria, Iran, the Gulf and Central and Eastern Europe, the 8th edition's focus is on Russia, hosting galleries, artists, curators, publications, art critics and collectors from Russia.

CI Opening performance: HERMANN NITSCH

Hermann Nitsch, one of the founders of Vienna Actionism will exhibit his 66th Painting Performance, "Malakt" in Contemporary Istanbul. Nitsch had 138 Performances, first one being in Vienna in 1962 and the last one being in Leipzig in June of 2013. He also had 65 Painting Performances, of which the first one being in Vienna in 1960, and last one in Prinzenhof August of 2013. Nitsch's 66th Painting Performance will be exhibited in Istanbul Congress Center throughout the fair.

"DIYALOG": Art from Vienna

"DIYALOG": Art from Vienna will showcase works by leading contemporary artists living in Vienna sponsored by OMV Group, the newly special project sponsor of Contemporary Istanbul. The selection is made by a pool of ten curators comprised of art experts from a variety of fields. Each of them has nominated one prominent artist from the older generation and one young artist with great potential. The exhibition prompts a dialog between the art and the viewer and opens up new perspectives on contemporary art in Austria's capital. With the project OMV would like to contribute to cultural exchange in its core markets Austria and Turkey.
